PROGRAMME TITLE	SAQA ID	NQF	CREDITS
ADVANCED CERTIFICATE IN PROJECT MANAGEMENT	83546	LEVEL 6	140

DESCRIPTION

The Advanced Certificate in Project Management is a one-year learning programme that enables the learner to plan, establish, implement and manage fairly complex to complex projects. Strong "drivers" for advanced project management training and development include the need to provide a comprehensive set of competencies that will enable the learner to achieve these objectives.

In addition to large scale projects, all businesses have the need to implement ongoing development in the form of smaller projects. This programme responds to this need by providing students with a range of relevant theoretical and practical project management and administrative skills that will increase opportunities for their successful contribution towards our national developmental goals.

This programme is directed primarily at persons with prior project management knowledge, qualifications and work experience, and who would like to expand their project management competencies in any sector of the economy. It will be of benefit to individuals who intend to broaden their project management skills and who understand that a range of additional project management skills form an integral part of any successful and responsive work environment.

ARTICULATION

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) processes and Credit Accumulation and Transfer (CAT) are articulation mechanisms. The institution reserves the right to conduct a formal assessment for purposes of CAT. An evaluation will be conducted to recognise prior learning. This evaluation may or may not be based on a form of formal assessment and can include a portfolio of evidence submission. These mechanisms are in line with the HEQSF as envisaged in the NQF Act 67 of 2008 and the CHE "Policies on the Recognition of Prior Learning, Credit Accumulation and Transfer, and Assessment in Higher Education" published by the CHE in August 2016.

The final approval for applications in respects of CAT and RPL, is subject to academic vetting in terms of applicable legislation and institutional policies.

Enquire at your nearest Lyceum Sales Office for more information regarding the awarding of subject credits (Credit Accumulation and Transfer - CAT) towards Lyceum Qualifications.

- Students who enrol for any study year have two examination opportunities. Students can select to write any number of subjects during the first or second examination opportunity. If you elect to write the exam during the first opportunity and fail, you may re-write (as a supplementary) at the second opportunity upon payment of the prescribed supplementary examination fee. If you elect to write the examination at the second opportunity but fail, you may write the examination during the first chance of the next cycle ONLY, upon payment of the supplementary examination fee. If you again fail, having exhausted the above opportunities, you MUST re-register for the subject before a further examination may be attempted.

ASSESSMENT

Assessments consist of one assignment (formative assessment) and a final examination (summative assessment) for each subject. If you fail to submit the compulsory assignment in time you can request permission to submit a penalty assignment at a penalty fee. If you did not submit an assignment you cannot register for examinations. Make sure you submit the compulsory assignment within the prescribed time because it does not cost you anything.

Your final mark for each subject will be calculated as follows:-

- Assignment contributes 20% towards the final mark
- Examination contributes 80% towards the final mark

A student who submitted an assignment for a specific subject, and fails that subject, does not have to re-submit a further assignment prior to writing the "supplementary" examination. The assignment mark is automatically carried over. However, if the assignment mark is low, and the student wishes to re-do the assignment, he/she may apply to the examinations section for a copy of the new assignment (at the prescribed fee) and may then re-submit the assignment on or before the new due date.

NOTE: In the case of Applied Project Management there is no examination. The assessment consists of a comprehensive work-based project and the final mark allocation for this subject is based entirely on this assignment / project. This subject makes up the Work Integrated Learning (WIL) for this qualification.

CERTIFICATION

Upon successful completion of your programme, you will receive a certificate depicting: - Advanced Certificate in Project Management and an academic transcript. These documents will be issued at the annual graduation ceremony, couriered to the nearest branch or posted to you, provided that your account is in order.

It is the learner's responsibility to ensure they meet all the programme requirements before a qualification can be issued.
